CRS. Sec. 24-72-305.5 – Access to records – denial by custodian – use of records to obtain information for solicitation.

Records of official actions and criminal justice records and the names, address, telephone numbers, and other information in such records shall not be used by any person for the purpose of soliciting business for pecuniary gain. The official custodian shall deny any person access to records of official actions and criminal justice records unless such person signs a statement which affirms that such records shall not be used for direct solicitation of business for pecuniary gain.

I affirm that I shall not sue the requested information for direct solicitation for business for pecuniary gain and acknowledge that such violation is a Class 3 Misdemeanor under Colorado Revised Statute 24-72-309.
